ABOUT THIS YEAR’S CONTEST

The Northwest Excellence in Journalism contest is one of the largest of its kind in the nation and honors journalists across SPJ Region 10, which covers Alaska, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon.

All proceeds from this contest support the efforts of SPJ Western Washington and SPJ Oregon territory chapters. In Washington, contest proceeds fund scholarships for student journalists. In Oregon, proceeds help pay for our lobbyist, who works on our behalf in Salem to improve public records law.

This year’s entries were due by February 28, 2020. We’ve updated our categories and updated the contest rules this year and added new eligibility guidelines based on feedback from our members. A summary of changes and category descriptions is here.
